ASABA – A vigilante officer, on Tuesday, killed a 13-year-old-boy and injured two others in Ibusa community in Oshimili North Local Government Area of Delta State.

Daily Independent gathered that trouble started when a landlord lodged a complaint about his to the Vigilante for receiving visitors.

Sources said that the young tenant protested the landlord's action on the people that should pay him a visit after paying rent.

It was gathered that the landlord later invited the vigilante who arrested the tenant and whisked him away to their office.

Our source, who requested anonymity, said, " The tenant called his friends, who came to help solve the situation. While the tenant was inside the office with some vigilante, a member of the Vigilante who engaged the three friends in a discussion shot at one of them, killing him on the spot while the two others sustained injuries.
