

Police Launch Manhunt For Suspected Murderer Of 22-Year-Old Lady

CHUKWUJEKWU ILOZUE

AWKA

The Osumenyi Division of Nigeria Police has launched a manhunt for the murderers of a 22-year old lady in the area.

The body of the lady whose name and address could not be ascertained as at press time was discovered by 12 p.m. on November 11.

Her loveless body was reportedly seen by a Good Samaritan inside a gutter along Osumenyi/Akwuihedi Road Osumenyi with mark of violence on her neck, with mouth sealed with tape while her legs and hands were tied with rope.

She was rushed to Visitation Hospital Osumenyi where she was confirmed dead by the doctor on duty and her body deposited at the same hospital morgue for autopsy.

According to the police spokesman, Haruna Mohammed, who confirmed the story, effort has been intensified to ascertain circumstances surrounding the incident while manhunt has been launched to apprehend the perpetrators and bring them to book.