

Car Dealer Assassinated In Delta Community

By Michael Oladapo On Nov 24, 2020 4:03 PM

FEATURED

LATEST NEWS

Late Mr Nelson Ugboh, the assassinated car dealer.

33 0

Share

 AdSense – Leaderboard 1

ASABA – Hoodlums suspected to be assassins on Tuesday killed a car dealer by the back of Regent International School, Jeddo Community, Okpe Local Government Area of Delta State.

Trouble started when the deceased, identified as Mr Nelson Ugboh, in his 40s, was ambushed while trying to lock the gate to his compound after returning home at about 10:00 pm.

It was alleged that the father of five, who has a car mart opposite Saint Anthony Catholic Church, Airport Road, Warri, was killed by business rivals.

Bedroom Ad

It was revealed that the assassins kept watch at a nearby drinking spot, before killing the victim on the spot.

It was learnt that one of the gunmen was said to have entered Ugboh's house, destroyed some vital business documents and made away with others.

READ ALSO

POLITICS

Family Of Slain Vendor Threatens Legal Action Against Gbajabiamila, Demands N500m Compensation

Nov 24, 2020

POLITICS

2023: Kalu Meets Political Associates In Enugu

Nov 24, 2020

It can be recalled that there has been increase in criminal activities in Jeddo community for the past two weeks, with reports of increasing wave of burglary and robbery in the hitherto peaceful Okpe Community.

When contacted, State Commissioner of Police, Mohammed Hafiz Inuwa, confirmed the incident.

 Chinese Eye Cure Ad

 Taboola Below Article