

Four Killed In Renewed Cult Clash In Ebonyi

By Samson Nwafor On Dec 1, 2020 6:41 AM

METRO

The bodies of Mgbamgba and his girl friend.

 AdSense – Leaderboard 1

ABAKALIKI – Four persons have been reportedly shot dead in Ebonyi State following a renewed clash between two rival cult groups.

The clash, it was gathered, was between members of Ayez and Barga confraternities.

One of the victims identified as Mgbamgba who is said to be a member of Ayez confraternity from Oriuzor in Ezza North, was alleged to have led a squad that killed a member of Barga confraternity on Sunday morning at Umuoghara quarry site in the same local government area.

 Bedroom Ad

Consequently, members of Barga on a revenge mission were alleged to have trailed Mgbamgba that Sunday evening and shot him and his girlfriend dead on their way back from a child dedication ceremony.

The clash escalated to Onueke in Ezza South LGA, where another person identified as Chikwado Nweke popularly known as Quack, who is alleged to be a member of Barga was shot dead at Ikwo Road, Onueke, on Sunday night.

---

READ ALSO

---

METRO

METRO

Cost Of Food Stuffs Continue To Skyrocket In Onitsha Markets

Nov 30, 2020

The deceased who is from Amuzu in Ezza South LGA, until his death, worked at Ezekuna Motor Park.

His killers reportedly threw him into a nearby gutter, where his body was found on Monday morning.

His corpse had been deposited in Onueke morgue.

 Ad Pone – Leaderboard

 Taboola Mid-Article

When contacted, the State Police Public Relations Officer in the State, DSP Loveth Odah, said the Command was not aware of the incident.

She, however, urged members of the public whose relations were allegedly killed to report the matter to the police for immediate action.

 Premature Ejaculation Ad

 Taboola Below Article

93-Year-Old Nigerian: I Never Get Sick Because I
Clean My Veins