UGHELLI – Three mobile police officers on special duty from Zaria were reportedly shot dead by suspected gunmen on Sunday night in Ughelli North Local Government Area of Delta State.

The gunmen were said to have carted away the service rifles of the policemen.

Though the report was sketchy as at the time of going to press, it was gathered that the three mobile policemen simply identified as Insp. Simon Madaki, Insp. Mutari Lawal, and Sgt. Adamu Ibrahim were transferred from Mopol 47, Zaria, Kaduna State, nearly a year ago.

According to security sources, “They were visiting Mobile Policemen from ‘Mopol 47, Zaria’ in Kaduna State and they have been in the hotel on a ‘special duty’ for nearly a year now.”

The hotel, name withheld, was formerly a fast food joint which was converted to a Club House and, later, a hotel.

Another security source disclosed that they were four mobile policemen guarding the hotel, while the three of them were outside, the surviving one was indoors.

All efforts to speak with the CEO of the hotel for comments was not successful as calls and texts to his phone were not answered as at the time of this report.

The Delta State Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Onome Onovwakpoyeya, confirmed the incident, saying details of the incident were still sketchy.

DSP Onovwakpoyeya said no arrest had been made over the killing.

She, however, said a thorough investigation into the attack had been launched by the command.

“I am aware of the incident but no details yet. It was only those three policemen killed that were involved,” the police spokesperson said.
