

Hoodlums Attack Police Station In Ibadan, Free Two Persons

RAJI ADEBAYO

Hoodlums have attacked Mapo Police Station, in the Mapo Area of Ibadan, Oyo State, in a bid to free two of their members arrested in connection with an inter-cult clash on Tuesday that resulted in the killing of an aged woman.

This came from a statement on Thursday by the Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Oyo State Command, Olugbenga Fadeyi.

Part of the statement read: "The Commissioner of Police, Oyo State Command, wishes to inform the general public of the incident that occurred earlier today, January 28, 2021, at about 1145hrs at Odo-Osun Area of Mapo, where police personnel from the Mapo Divisional Police Headquarters were deployed to effect the arrest of two notorious miscreants who have been deeply involved in the crisis rocking Shogoye/Akobi areas of Mapo lately.

"It can be recalled that armed thugs from Shogoye/Akobi areas have been unleashing mayhem, causing grievous hurt and the death of innocent citizens in the two areas.

"On the 25th of January, 2021, at about 0600hrs, an elderly woman in a white Celestial Church cap known as Modupe Daramola 'f' aged 60 years of a Celestial Church in the Akobi area, was hit with pellets from a locally made gun fired by one of the hoodlums during the clashes and gave up the ghost, while some

CONTINUES ON P29 →