An angry mob has reportedly set ablaze a man yet to be identified for robbing a woman of a mobile phone at the popular Odion Road, Warri South Local Government Area of Delta State.

This is just as an unidentified teenager was apprehended by angry mob at Omentan junction for also robbing a lady of her phone.

Daily Independent gathered that the incident occurred on March 15, 2021.

Sources said that the hoodlums, a gang of two, reportedly robbed a woman of her phone on Monday morning.

"During the operations along the road, angry mob rescued the woman and set ablaze one of the robbers, and the other one escaped," sources said.

In another development, an angry mob also arrested a teenager at Omentan junction for also robbing a lady of her phone.

Sources said that the parents of the teenager came out begging for their son not to be set ablaze.

"After begging for the teenager, the angry youths let go the teenager with a very strong warning never to be seen around the area.

When contacted for comments, the State Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), DSP Bright Edafe, confirmed the incident in a statement.
