

E TRACKER

Suspected Cultist Stabs Youth Leader To Death In Delta

SUNDAY APAH

UGHELLI

The youth leader of Agbowhiane community Ughievwen Kingdom, Ughelli South Local Government Area of Delta State, Mr. Joseph Irhobo was on Wednesday evening, stabbed to death by a notorious cultist.

It was gathered that the deceased, Mr. Joseph Irhobo, was stabbed to death by the notorious cultist, identified as Mr. Elvis Philip, while trying to settle the quarrel between his killer and a petty female trader.

Reliable sources told journalists that "Mr. Elvis Philip had gone to the store of Mrs. Liagbe to buy some items on credit but Mrs. Liagbe refused to sell her goods without being paid and that led to an argument between both of them.

"Mr. Elvis Philip later slapped Mrs. Liagbe, which led to a brawl between the children of the petty trader and the notorious cultist.

"The youth leader, who was walking along the road, stepped in and tried to broker peace between the family of Mrs. Liagbe and the notorious cultist. The notorious cultist immediately left the petty trader and her children and stabbed the youth leader on the chest. The youth leader was immediately rushed to the General Hospital, Otu-Jeremi where he was confirmed dead by doctors on duty."

When contacted, Police Public Relations Officer, Delta State Command, DSP Bright Edafe, confirmed the story, saying they are making frantic efforts to arrest the fleeing suspected killer.