LAGOS – A suspected kidnapper was on Friday, June 4, 2021 killed during an exchange of gun fire with the police.

The incident happened in Mologede area of Odeda Local Government Area of Ogun State.

Abimvola Oyeyemi, Police Public Relations Officer (PPRO), Ogun State Command who confirmed the incident, said this followed a distress call received by the DPO Bode Olude divisional headquarters at about 12 noon, that a tipper driver had been kidnapped by a group of people suspected to be herdsmen.

“Upon the distress call, the DPO Bode Olude division, DSP Durojaye Rotimi, mobilised his men, the local hunters, men of so safe corps as well as policemen from adjoining police stations and moved to the area.

“While combing the bush, the kidnappers were sighted in the forest where they engaged the policemen in gun battle. In the process, one of the kidnappers was shot on the leg, while others escaped with various degrees of gunshot injuries, while the victim was rescued unhurt.

“One single barrel gun was recovered from them, while the suspect gave up the ghost on the way to hospital,” Oyeyemi, a Deputy Superintendent of Police, added.

Meanwhile, the Commissioner of Police (CP), Edward Awolowo Ajogun, who commended his men for their display of gallantry, had ordered a massive manhunt for the fleeing members of the gang.

He also applauded the support given to the police by men of so safe corps, Hunters and OPC, he therefore sought for continuation of such cooperation.
