

One Kidnapper Killed, One Expatriate Rescued In Bayelsa

By Igoniko Oduma On Oct 30, 2021

CRIME TRACKER

SP Asinim Butswat

YENAGOA – The Bayelsa State Police Command said on Saturday that security operatives have rescued a foreign national, who was abducted by gang of gunmen at a construction site along the Igbedi-Amassoma Road in the state.

The police in a statement issued by command's spokesman, Asinim Butswat, a Superintendent of Police, said the security personnel guarding the construction site shot and killed one of the kidnappers in the incident.

Butswat claimed that the expatriate was rescued unhurt by a combination of Joint Task Force, Navy and Army operatives around the Ogboibiri waterways, but did not disclose the identity and country of the victim.