

F-SARS Operative Allegedly Kill Leader Of Private Security Outfit In Ibadan

RAJIADEBAYO

IBADAN

A leader of private security outfit, who is also a member of Oodua Peoples Congress (OPC) in Oyo State simply identified as Moruf a.k.a. Ese Murphy has allegedly died of gunshots he got during an encounter with a policeman in Ibadan.

The National Publicity Secretary of OPC New Era, Mr. Adesina Akinpelu, who confirmed the incident to Daily Independent on Wednesday, called on the Inspector General, Usman Alkali Baba, and the state Commissioner of Police, Ngozi Onadeko, to without delay arrest and prosecute the erring policeman.

It was gathered that a policeman attached to Federal Special Anti-Robbery Squad (F-SARS) identified as Segun a.k.a. Sanjay during an encounter shot Moruf on Thursday.

The incident occurred at the residence of Segun in Imalefalafia junction, Oke Ado area of Ibadan, which is part of the catchment area being secured by Moruf.

It was gathered that Segun shot Moruf twice on that Thursday and he later died on Saturday as result of the gunshots.

It was gathered that Segun who was attached to F-SARS in Lagos State was fond of shooting into air twice every night whenever he is in Ibadan, where his family resides.

It was further gathered that the policeman always comes back home late night whenever in Ibadan, and would shoot twice into the air anytime he is back home at night to call the attention of other residents that he is back home.

It was gathered that residents of the area where the rented apartment of the policeman is situated were not comfortable with the attitude of the policeman.

It was further gathered that members of the private security outfit led by Mr. Moruf were not also comfortable with the attitude of the policeman because it always creates fear and tension in the minds of the residents.

Members of the security outfit reported Segun to Moruf, who was their boss, who in turn went to Segun to announce their displeasure with that attitude of unnecessary shooting every night whenever he is Ibadan.

It was further gathered that Segun stopped the act of shooting at night after Moruf expressed their displeasure, on the ground that the act always cause confusion and that it would not allow them to know whenever real armed robbers come to the area.