The police in Anambra State has reported an alleged murder case involving one Ozioma Orakwe, aged 27 of Amatutu village Agulu Anaocha Local Government Area of Anambra State.

A press statement released on the unfortunate incident by the state police spokesman DSP Ikenga Tochi on Friday has it that the suspect has made useful confessional statements helping the police in the ongoing investigation of the murder of one Martin Orakwe, aged 75 years of Amatutu village Agulu Anaocha council area over alleged domestic issues.

The statement reads, "The Commissioner of Police CP Echeng Echeng has admonished citizens to always seek other means of settling their differences than resorting to fighting and violence."

The CP gave this counsel while reacting to arrest of one Ozioma Orakwe 'F' aged 27 years on the alleged murder of Martin Orakwe 'M', aged 75 years of Amatutu village, Agulu Anaocha LGA.

Against the report received on March 2, at 3:08pm from one Mr Sunday Orakwe of alleged suicide by the deceased, preliminary investigation reveals that the victim had a cut on his head with marks of violence all over his body.

Additional information shows that the suspect, a relative to the deceased, had a disagreement which resulted to a fight.

Meanwhile, police operatives have recovered the body of the deceased and the suspect have also made useful statement that is helping in the ongoing investigation. The case shall be charged to court after a conclusive investigation.
