ABUJA – The Federal Capital Territory (FCT) Police Command has arrested three suspects in connection with the criminal conspiracy and the gruesome murder of one Terungwa Stephenie, a 26-year-old Corps Member of City Homes Estate in Lokogoma area of the FCT.

According to a statement issued on Friday by the Command's Spokesperson, DSP Josephine Adeh, the arrest was made following the deployment of Tactical and Intelligence assets at the Command's disposal, attached to the Homicide department of the State Criminal Investigations Department (SCID).

The suspected trio namely; Jenifer Tsembe, a 26 years old female, Monday Simon (a.k.a Black), a 36-year-old male, and Solomon Abu, a male of about 35 years of age, all residents of Oguta Lake Maitama Area of the FCT voluntarily stated their involvement in the perpetration of the dastardly act.

"The investigation is ongoing to unravel other groundbreaking facts, while effort has been doubled to apprehend the fleeing suspect(s). The suspects will be charged to court upon the conclusion of the investigation."

Meanwhile, the Commissioner of Police FCT Command CP Babaji Sunday while applauding the gallantry and result yielding effort of the investigating team, enjoined the good people of the Territory not to relent in cooperating with the Police, especially as touching the rendition of prompt and actionable intelligence.
