A security guard has been shot dead by suspected armed robbers evading arrest early Wednesday morning at Ekiugbo Community in Ughelli North Local Government Area of Delta State.

It was gathered that the robbers were being chased by Iwhrenene community vigilante after a foiled operation.

It would be recalled that a vigilante member simply identified as Sunday was recently shot by armed robbers few weeks ago at Iwhre-Inene Community before this recent killing.

A source said, "The security guard identified as Tunde was sleeping in a nearby keke in the community when the fleeing robbers shot him dead and escaped.

"This morning, robbers attacked my street and shot one of our security man to death at Panama layout, off Ekiugbo. They came on a mission at Iwhre-Inene but were chased down to Panama layout.

"Our street security were active and the robbers noticed that the security man that was shot to death while asleep in a nearby Keke.

When contacted, the Police Public Relations Officer of the Delta State Command, DSP Bright Edafe confirmed the incident to our reporter.

It was also reported that the corpse of the deceased who is said to have hail from Uduophori Community in Patani Local Government Area was quickly taken away by community leaders to forestall tension in the area.
