Chief Ejike Omeje, All Progressives Congress (APC) House of Representatives candidate for Nsukka/Igboeze-South Federal Constituency of Enugu State reportedly died in an auto crash on Tuesday.

Enugu APC House Of Reps Candidate Dies In Auto Crash

A source who spoke on condition of anonymity told Daily Independent, that Chief Omeje died on Tuesday morning in a ghastly motor accident along Erina-Edem-Ani Road in Nsukka Local Government Area.

According to him, "Omeje while driving back to Enugu after attending a political meeting lost control and his car veered into the bush and hit a big tree.

"Omeje was driving in his car from Edem-Ani community to Nsukka town on Tuesday morning when he had an accident with his car and died.

"He was alone in his car when the unfortunate incident happened."

He said Omeje was rushed to Bishop Shanahan Hospital, Nsukka, where he was confirmed dead by the doctor on duty.

When contacted, Omeje Campaign Director General, Mr. Ejiofor Agada, confirmed the incident but declined further comment.

"Please am sorry, the mood I am now, I can't talk more, I will talk to you later," Agada said.

Also when contacted Mr. Solomon Akor, the State Publicity Secretary of APC in Enugu State, said he heard the tragic news but had not been officially informed.

"I will issue a press statement when I am officially informed," he said.

It would be recalled that Omeje an Abuja-based Pharmacist and House of Representatives Candidate of APC for Nsukka/Igboeze-South Federal Constituency inaugurated his campaign office located at No. 5 Aku Road, Nsukka, on October 28, 2022.
