AKURE – Three of the four police officers who arrived from the Ondo State Police Command headquarters to arrest a female suspect in Ore, Odigbo Local Government Area, died in a motor accident.

The tragedy occurred when the driver of a trailer travelling from the Ijebu-Odu axis lost control, crossed the median, and collided with a police van carrying four officers and the female suspect in Ore.

The female suspect, who has yet to be identified, died on the spot, as did three of the four police officers.

The remaining officer was immediately rushed to an undisclosed health facility in town for medical treatment after suffering serious injuries.

According to sources, police officers from the state police command's Monitoring Units left Akure to arrest people in the area.

Funmilayo Odunlami-Omisanya, the state Police Command's spokesperson and a Superintendent of Police, confirmed the incident.

Meanwhile, Samuel Ibitoye, Sector Commander, Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC) Ondo State Command, confirmed the incident.

The road traffic officer confirmed that the casualties were placed in the morgue of the state health facility in Ore.
