

b
x

Man Butchered On His Farm

BY NNAMDI MBAWIKE, Enugu

Tension has heightened in Ogbaku in Awgu local Government Area of Enugu State following the murder of one Titus Okoye in his farm.

It was gathered that the suspect, identified as Udeogor, allegedly used a machete to strike the deceased's head several times until he gave up the ghost.

A release made available to LEADERSHIP by the Enugu State Police Public Relations Officer, Ebere Amaraizu, which confirmed the incident, said the suspect has been arrested.

"It was gathered that the victim had gone to the farm on July 12, 2013 and did not return. Following this, a search was conducted and the deceased was met in a pool of his blood with severe machete cuts on his head and on the way to the hospital, the victim gave up the ghost.

"Investigations into the incident has commenced just as the body of the deceased is now deposited at the University of Nigeria Teaching Hospital ItukuOzalla Enugu mortuary for autopsy," he stated.