Environmental Pollution Kills 3 In Delta

BY KOLA NIYI-EKE, Asaba

Alleged Environmental pollution in Uvwie Local Government Area of Delta State has killed no fewer than three persons, leaving several residents of the community on the danger list.

Sequel to this, an indigene of the community, Comrade More Olighitere, has threatened to drag a construction company (name withheld) to court for allegedly constituting environmental nuisance in the community.

Victims of the environmental menace were said to have died of a strange ailment and swollen stomach, suspected to have been environmental pollution, especially as it also affected drinking water.

Olighitere, a petroleum marketer who spoke with LEADERSHIP said heavy duty vehicles owned by the construction company emit offensive odours in the community, adding that several appeals to the construction firm to evacuate the abandoned vehicles fell on deaf ears.

He maintained that the situation portends danger if urgent steps are not taken to check the menace.
