the bank of the River Niger near the popular Ose-Okwodu market.

The policemen stormed the hotel in the early hours of Thursday, following a tip-off and discovered three fresh human heads suspected to be body parts of two females, a male, two military AK47 rifles and two magazines in one of the rooms in the hotel.

The police team consequently arrested 11 sons in the hotel, including the owner of hotel whose name was given as Bonaventure Mokwe (popular as Obiridike-akanani).

A police source who pleaded anonymity disclosed to LEADERSHIP that during the operation which lasted for several hours, the police team led by a senior police officer attached to the IGP Monitoring Unit cordoned off the hotel after several intelligence reports that human meat was being served to guests in the said hotel.

He revealed that when the police got access to the hotel, they made a startling discovery of two decomposing human heads wrapped in a cellophane bag, two military AK47 rifles, two army caps, 40 rounds of live ammunition and so many cell phones.
