1 Killed, 3 Injured In Kogi Bank Robbery

BY SAM EGWU, Ikoja

One Emmanuel Bako was feared dead in Abejuko, headquarters of Omala local government, Kogi State when men of the underworld stormed the First bank branch located in the area, last Friday.

The suspected robbers operating in a blue Golf Volkswagen station wagon with registration number XW 343 EPE carted away an undisclosed amount of money.

LEADERSHIP gathered that investigations led to the arrest of one Bala Umar, who confessed to have conspired with two others, Zekeri and Ahmed (surnames unknown), who are still at large, to commit the crime.

The suspects who inflicted injuries on three staff of the bank who are still recuperating in the hospital ran out of luck when the largesse shared with Bala was recovered with 18 shells of AK47 ammunition, one locally made pistol, one magazine with six AK47 live ammunition.
