The clash between Eggon and Alago youths which started on Thursday escalated yesterday with over 50 people killed.

LEADERSHIP Sunday gathered that the violence which started in Tudun Adabu area of Obi local government area extended to Obi town, the council headquarters and Assakio in Lafia local government area.

The three Alago settlements allegedly came under fire following reports that some Alago youths and police officers acting on a tip-off detained a vehicle conveying suspected militiamen in Adabu on their way to Awe local government
