Two suspected dare devil armed robbers yesterday met their waterloo as they were shot dead by a members of a joint anti-robbery squad from the Jigawa State police command and the Inspector General of Police (IGP) monitoring unit, led by a renowned hunter, Ali Kwara.

The robbery suspects were gunned down while two others escaped with bullet wounds during a gun battle with law enforcement officers along Ringim-Kano road.

The Jigawa state police commissioner, Mr Theophilus Kayode, while parading the corpses of the suspects at the command's headquarters in Dutse, the state capital, yesterday, said the combined team after receiving intelligence report about the movement of the robbers along the road, intercepted and engaged them in a gun battle.
