

Police Kill Robbery, Kidnap Suspects

BY KOLA NIYI-EKE, Asaba

Police detectives in Warri, Delta State have killed three robbery suspects and one kidnap suspect around Owhosa Street, Aladja Udu local government area of the state after a prolonged shootout.

This is just as the police spokesman in the state, ASP Lucky Uyabeme, said the police detectives engaged the robbery and kidnap suspects in a gun battle on Monday night in their hideout where after a prolonged exchange of gunfire, the police gained the upper hand and killed the suspects.

He explained that the suspects on sighting the police had opened fire on them and the police responded with superior fire, killing the suspects.

Uyabeme said one locally made pistol, one cut to size single barrel gun and a double barrel gun including live and expended cartridges were recovered from them and added that efforts were on-going to fish out the fleeing suspects and bring them to justice.

They expressed concern as to how the scor-

scorpion sting.
