

stori

...news with a h

Police Arrest 6 Hoodlums, Kill 1 In Delta

BY KOLA NIYI-EKE, Asaba

The Police in Ozoro community, Isoko North local government area of Delta State have arrested six persons for alleged questionable acts while one of them was shot dead.

Speaking to journalists ahead yuletide, CSP Steve Yabanet in charge of the police division vowed that the police would not rest on its oars with a view to fighting crime in Isoko land and its environs, adding that the arrested persons were found to be miscreants creating confusion in the land.

He said the suspects were arrested following useful information made available to the police, adding that upon their arrest and the death of one of them, the police recovered instruments belonging to a popular church in the community.

He said the police had launched "operation sweep away bad eggs" for the 'ember months,' noting that Ozoro metropolis has remain relatively peaceful and called on residents of the area help the police fish out bad eggs among them.