Communal Clash Claims 4 In Delta

BY KOLA NIYI-EKE, Asaba

A raging communal crisis between Umusadege Ogbe and Umuseti Ogbe communities in Ndokwa West local government area of Delta State has reportedly claimed the lives of four persons.

Reports said the two communities have been at war over land tussle and aggrieved members of the communities freely used dangerous weapons including guns to press home their anger, during the fracas.

Senior special assistant to the state governor on community relations, Mrs Doris Obi Moko-bia, however appealed to leaders of the communities to prevail on their people as the breakdown of law and order in the communities might spell further doom if not checked.

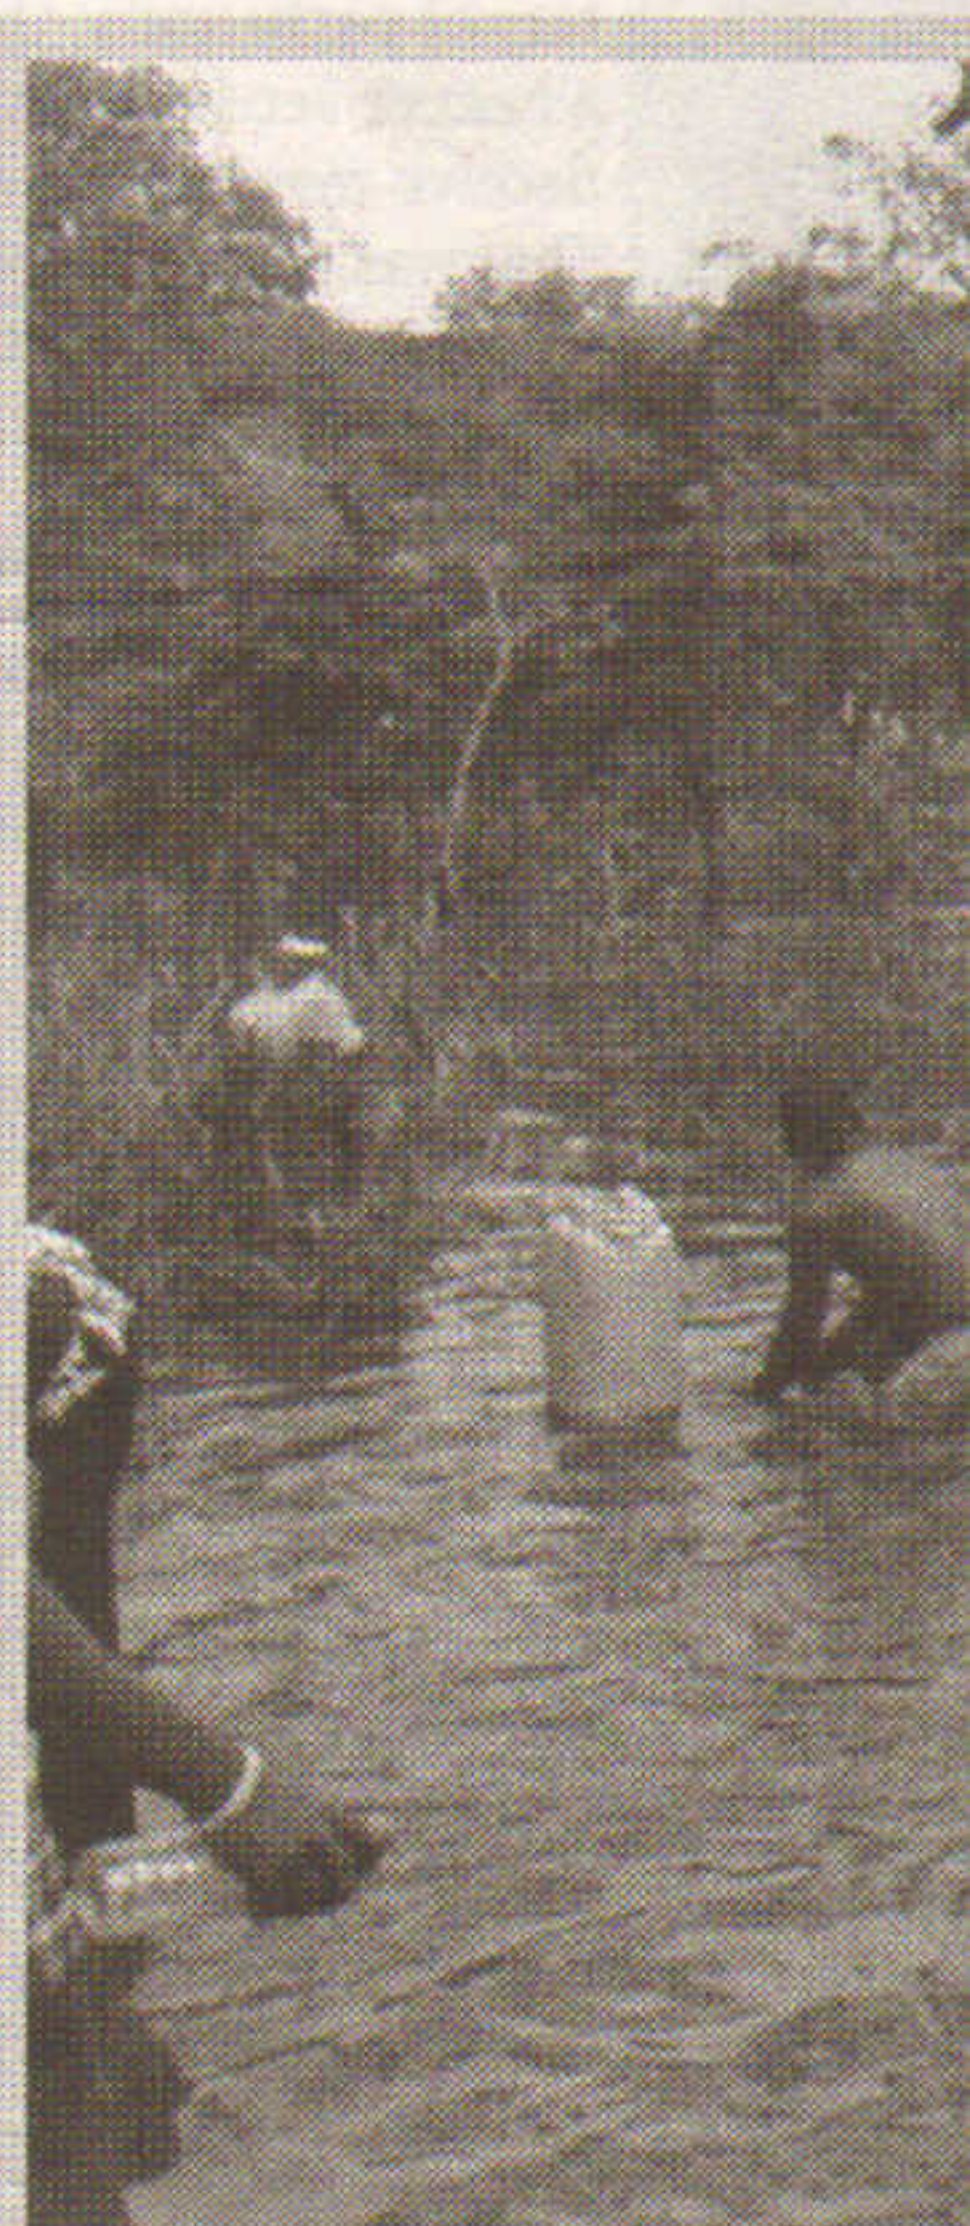

She reiterated the state government's determination to proffer a lasting solution to the lingering crisis and warned those in the habit of taking the law into their hands to make peace or face the wrath of the law.

Police authorities in the area confirmed that some persons have been arrested in connection with the fracas which occurred on Monday.
