Three labourers yesterday died while two others were injured when they were demolishing a building in Dosa Road of Ungwa Dosa, Kaduna local government area.

The victims were simply identified as Ahmadu, Shaibu and Mohammed Aliyu, while Abdullahi and Mamman who were injured are receiving treatment at the 44 Army Reference Hospital, Kaduna.

The building was owned by Saint Faith Catholic Church but they sold it after the 2011 post-election crisis to Alhaji Suleiman Dan Zaria, who contracted it to labourers for demolition.

It was gathered that about 14 labourers were in the building when the pillars collapsed and three of them died in the process.

Meanwhile, the deputy governor, Ambasador Nuhu Audu Bajoga, who visited the site where a building collapsed sympathised with the family of the deceased.

He also visited Almadiya hospital where the injured persons were rushed to and instructed the State Emergency Management Agency (SEMA) to move them to the 44 Army Reference Hospital.

The Chairman of SEMA was accompanied by the executive secretary of the agency, Dogo Makam.

He assured that the state government would foot the bills of the injured persons.

A statement issued by the deputy governor's press secretary, James Swam said his boss had enjoined property developers to use the right machineries in demolishing buildings to avoid and/or eliminate the number of casualties recorded in the process.
