Malam Mudi Adamu who narrated his experience to LEADERSHIP Weekend confirmed that on his way to Bama from Gwoza in a commercial vehicle they were prevented by the military from going ahead with the journey following the discovery of some insurgents along the road.

“We were stopped and made to go back by the military men because the road is not good following the discovery of some insurgents in the bush trying to cross over to the other side of the road to Bama town,” Mudi affirmed.

Mudi added that no motorist or passenger was killed during and after the incident, stating that earlier reports that some passengers and motorists were killed was mere rumour.

Other reliable sources disclosed in Maiduguri that the military actually ambushed the insurgents following an intelligence report that the insurgents were preparing to attack Bama again.

When the Spokesman of the Division 7 of the Nigerian Army Maiduguri, Colonel Mohammed Dole, was contacted he confirmed the incident but said the detail was still vague.
