3 Feared Dead In Benue Road Accident

Tragedy struck in Wannune, the headquarters
of Tarka local government area of Benue State when
two heavy duty
trucks collided and
killed three church
members in the process.

The accident victims, members of the NKST church, were travelling to Makurdi for the annual Tiv youth convention (MIM) of the NKST church before the accident occurred.

LEADERSHIP
Sunday reports that the auto crash happened on Friday night opposite the College of Health Science and Technology, Wannune when a truck conveying cartons of minerals lost control after it had attempted to dodge a speed bump and eventually collided with the truck that loaded the Christian youths.

Mr Luper Tser, an eye witness said, "The vehicles lost control in attempt to manoeuvre a speed bump near the Tarka LGA secretariat. The injured victims are receiving treatment at the St. Christopher's Hospital in Wannune."
