

stories

...news with a human face

Civil Defence Personnel Kills Policeman In Bayelsa

BY OSA OKHOMINA, Yenagoa

Tragedy has struck in Bayelsa State following the shooting to death of a mobile policeman by a personnel of the Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC) during a shoot-out with armed robbers in the state capital.

Both the deceased mobile policeman and the NSCDC personnel were attached to the state security outfit known as Operation Door Akpor.

It was gathered that the Operation Door Akpor team received a distress call about a robbery operation along the Amarata and Etegwe area and "on sighting the described vehicle of the bandits, engaged in pursuit. When the occupant of the vehicle shot at the police, the NSCDC personnel jumped down and shot at the bandits. But not before his colleague and deceased Mopol jumped into the line of fire while taking position to shoot too."

The wooden kennel where Bl

Twin Locked By