Man To Die By Hanging For Homicide

BY NAN

A 21-year-old man, Harisu Abdullahi, was yesterday sentenced to death by hanging by a Jos High Court for committing homicide.

Delivering judgment, Justice Mohammed Surajo, said Abdullahi should die by hanging.

“By the evidences before this court, you, Harisu Abdullahi, of Rikkos Quarters in Jos North Local Government, is hereby found guilty of the offence as charged.

“I hereby sentence you to death by hanging, having committed culpable homicide on April 14, 2010, when you stabbed Abubakar Danlami in the chest,” he declared.

The convict did not show remorse after the sentence but his family members burst into tears in court.

He said that on April 14, 2010, when Abdullahi and Danlami met in the house of the girl, there was misunderstanding during which Abdullahi stabbed Danlamin in the chest.
