— February 14, 2014

Infuriated by the act of criminality unleashed on the farming community of Wuase, in Konshisha local government area of Benue State, angry youths, on Wednesday, set ablaze two robbers who terrorised the community.

LEADERSHIP FRIDAY understands that the incident occurred at noon when the suspected criminals stormed the Wuase Market and dispossessed the traders of their belongings, including cash.

Yesterday, however, the robbers met their Waterloo, when they were caught by the youths who pursued them after they attempted to make their escape. The young men refused listening to the pleas of the men of the Nigeria Police Force in the area and that of the Ter Kyor, Chief Jam Gbinde, and went ahead to pour fuel on the two robbers, setting them ablaze and watching, until they burnt to ashes.
