5 Feared Killed In Plateau

Achor Abimaje

— March 9, 2014

At least five people were allegedly killed in three villages of Langtang South local government council of Plateau State.

LEADERSHIP Sunday investigation revealed that the villages that came under attack by suspected gunmen were Rawaya, Barrack, Buwa and Timshat all in Langtang South local government council.

Our correspondent gathered that the chairman of Langtang South LGC Hon Bendel, who was recently sworn-in, loss over 200 bags of grains as a result of the attack.

According to an eye witness and a survivor of the attack, Nandom who spoke to our correspondent, the gunmen invaded the villages killing and burning down houses and harvested food stuff belonging to fleeing villagers.

He appealed to the Special Task Force, STF, on Jos crisis code-named Operation Save Haven to deploy their men into villages to prevent the killings of innocent and hapless people in the area.

Efforts to contact the spokesman of the special task force on Jos crisis, Captain Salisu Mustapher, for confirmation could not yield any positive result as his mobile phone was switched off as at the time of filing in this report.
