

2 Killed, 13 Houses Destroyed As Flood Ravages Community

BY KOLA EKE-OGIUGO, Asaba

A heavy flood disaster in the early hours of Tuesday in Agbor community, Delta State has reportedly killed two persons and destroyed 13 houses in the area.

It was gathered that the flood which came after a heavy downpour swept away the victims (teenagers) who were hawking wares on the Lagos-Asaba Road in Boji-Boji Agbor metropolis while the houses were submerged by the water.

A witness said the victims were swept into a gutter and struggled to no avail for survival.

Speaking with LEADERSHIP, parents of the victims who preferred anonymity as well as one of the owners of the submerged houses, Mr. Solomon Ogbeide lamented that the issue of flood and erosion in the area had become a recurring decimal.
