Police Kill 2 Robbers, Arrest One In Ogun

Segun Olatunji

— March 16, 2014

The Special Anti-robbery Squad of the Ogun State Police Command has killed two members of an armed robbery gang in Sagamu.

The bandit had attempted to rob a man of the sum of N50million on Friday night at GRA, Sagamu, when they were confronted by the police special anti-robbery squad led by Superintendent Mohammed Tijani. The police also arrested another member of the gang, Solomon Dackson who sustained serious gunshot injuries during an exchange of fire.

Items recovered from the gang included an unregistered Toyota Camry, a revolver pistol with six rounds of ammunition, one military barreta pistol and one double barrel gun with 20 rounds of live cartridges.

According to the state Police Public Relations Officer, DSP Muyiwa Adejobi, "The notorious armed robbers who came from Anambra State to rob one unidentified man of the sum of 50 million Naira only were ambushed by the police in the MTD area of Sagamu. The robbers fought back and opened fire on the team but were overpowered and two of them were gunned down while one Solomon Dackson was arrested with fatal bullet injury.

Adejobi noted that the Special Anti-robbery Squad received an intelligence report of the plans by the robbers to strike in Sagamu and rob the man of the said amount of money. He added that the intelligence report was acted upon immediately, resulting in the killing and arrest of the hoodlums.
