② ✓ My Son Was Not A Cultist, Father Of Murdered 28-Year-Old Cries Out

BY OSA OKHOMINA, Yenagoa

Hon. Amitidor Michael, father of the murdered 28-year-old boy, Simeon Michael, has denied the alleged involvement of his son in cult related activities before he was killed last Friday in Oruma Community of Ogbia Local Government Area of Bayelsa State.

Simeon Micheal was attacked with Machetes by some youths suspected to be indigenes of Oruma Community over an undisclosed argument.

He was allegedly killed in the presence of his elder brother, Minebhinime Zibara.

Authorities of the state police command, through its spokesman, DSP Alex Akhigbe, confirmed the killing and the arrest of three persons over their involvement in the violent clash that nearly ignited a communal clash between Oruma youths and Otusega community where the deceased hailed from.
