

6 Killed, 5 Injured In Osun Auto Crash

Six persons died while five others sustained injuries yesterday in an auto crash at Iyanfoworogi village near Ile-Ife, Ife South local government area of Osun State.

Mr Tola Adetoro, the unit commander of the FRSC in Ile-Ife, disclosed this to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN) yesterday.

Adetoro said that the accident happened at about 9am following a collision between an articulated vehicle marked KTU 51 XJ and a bus with registration number XD 740 GNN.

He said the accident was caused by the bus driver coming from Ondo axis to Ile-Ife who wrongly overtook the truck in the opposite direction.

Adetoro said that those who died were two men, two women and two little girls.

He said his officers as well as those of NSCDC and the police were at the scene of the crash to rescue victims.

Those injured, he said, were conveyed to Obafemi Awolowo University Teaching Hospital Complex, Ile-Ife.

By NAN

Gross

BY KUNLE OLASAN

President Goodluck Jonathan and the attorney general, Mr. Olufemi Sanwo-Olu (SAN) have asked the Court sitting in Lagos to grant out a suit filed by Gladys Olotu to her retirement from the bench by the National Judicial Council (NJC).

Justice Olotu is a judge of the Federal High Court in Abuja by the

