The state Police Commissioner, Mr Kayode Theophilus told journalists in Dutse that the suspect had snatched a Honda Accord car in Abuja with registration number RSH 748 SG which he brought to the state to sell but was caught following a tip-off by an informant.

"One of our officers pretended to be a buyer and as they were discussing he suspected that the buyer was a policeman and quickly pulled out his gun.

"An exchange of fire ensued during which he was shot dead," the commissioner said.

He said a berretta pistol with four rounds of ammunition and the sum of N5,500 were recovered from the suspect.
