Death: Vehicle Crushes Man In Lagos

MATTHEW DIKE

— April 1, 2014

A hit-and-run driver yesterday crushed a yet-to-be identified man at the Mile Two-Oshodi expressway, in Lagos State.

The man was said to be running across the road in the morning when a car hit him near the 1st Rainbow Bus Stop, Amuwo Odofin.

Witnesses said the feet and part of the head of the victim were chopped off by the vehicle.

When LEADERSHIP visited the scene, passers-by wondered why council officials from Amuwo Odofin local government refused to remove the corpse which had become an eyesore.

One of the passers-by, Franklin Agu said the officials ought to have taken the corpse away immediately the accident occurred, as its continuous presence on the road constituted an eyesore.
