

DEATH: 4 Electrocuted In Port Harcourt

BY ANAYO ONUKWUGHA, Port Harcourt

Four persons have been electrocuted in the last two weeks in Port Harcourt, the Rivers State capital, while tampering with facilities of the Port Harcourt Electricity Distribution Company (PHEDC).

The Assistant General Manager, Public Affairs of PHEDC, Mr. Obi Onuah, disclosed

this in an interview with newsmen in Port Harcourt.

He said many of the victims were avoiding connecting from the meter or were illegally connecting power on a PHCN facility after they were disconnected for failure to pay bills.

He advised electricity consumers to be safety conscious, pointing out that the management of the company was doing all
