

DEATH: Veil Chokes Woman, 60, To Death

BY MUAZU ELAZE, Katsina

Tragedy struck at Abdallawa village in Kaita local government of Katsina State, yesterday, when a 60-year-old woman, simply identified as Mama, was confirmed dead when her veil strangled her.

It was gathered that the aged woman was commuting on a motorcycle when a part of the veil she had earlier used to cover herself rolled down, got entangled in the motorcycle wheel and the other part around her neck choked her to death.

The woman was confirmed dead at the Kaita Medical Treatment where she was taken to after the incident, where doctors said the veil had obstructed her breathing.

Family sources told LEADERSHIP that the late mama boarded a motorcycle popularly known as express and was on her way to visit her siblings within the village when the incident occurred.

FIRE: Multi-million Naira Building Razed In Abuja