Herdsmen Attack Community, Kill 1 In Enugu

Nnamdi Mbawike

— April 15, 2014

Suspected Fulani herdsmen have killed an indigene of Ibagwa Ezimo in Udenu local Government Area of Enugu State.

According to a source, the victim, identified as Theophilus Eleje walked into the herdsmen, who were said to have laid ambush along the road.

Confirming the incident, the spokesman of the police in Enugu State, Mr. Ebere Amaraizu, DSP, said the herdsmen operated as armed robbers.

According to Amaraizu, "the suspected Fulani robbers gave machet cuts on the head of their victim, identified as one Theophilus Eneje as he ran into them. They emerged from the bush".

He stated that the victim later died owing to the machete cuts he received.

Amaraizu stated that "manhunt has been intensified in order to arrest the suspects".
