2 In Police Net For Murder, Conspiracy

Two men have been arrested by the Gombe State Police command for allegedly killing a man.

According to the command's public relations officer, DSP Fwaje Atajiri, the suspects are Muhammad Sani and Musa Muhammad.

The duo, from Arawa and Malainna areas of Gombe, allegedly conspired and killed one Saidu Muktar at London Medoruwa Area of Gombe metropolis.

Atajiri disclosed that the suspects were apprehended on Tuesday and were aiding police investigation.

Meanwhile, the police spokesman has declared a war on perpetrators of criminality and anti-social behaviour in the state.

Atajiri stated: "The Police in Gombe are making it abundantly clear that we are poised to deal decisively with all forms of anti-social behaviours and criminality in the state".

In the same vein, the command promised to deal with herdsmen and their sponsors who have decided to take the law into their hands by making the state ungovernable.
