

DEATH: Boy, 17, Electrocuted In Lagos

BY MATTHEW DIKE, Lagos

Tears flowed freely yesterday when a 17-year-old boy was electrocuted in his residence in Ajegunle area of Lagos State.

The victim simply identified as Mustapha was said to have gone to the back of the house located on Ladega Street in Tolu part of Ajegunle, where he came in contact with a metal roofing sheet which was in contact with a naked wire, and got electrocuted.

A neighbour, Joseph told LEADERSHIP that there was high power supply and as soon as he touched the roofing sheet, he could not move.

When LEADERSHIP visited the area, people were seen wailing and talking about the good behaviour of the victim.

Joseph said Mustapha's mother fainted when the incident occurred but was later revived.

DEATH: 6-month-old Baby Drowns In Bath Basin