Murder: Hoodlums Hack Teacher To Death

Muazu Elazeh

— May 8, 2014

Persons suspected to be Kauraye Street Urchins yesterday hacked a primary school teacher in Katsina metropolis of Katsina State to death.

It was gathered that the thugs, numbering seven, killed 25-year-old Bishir Sagir at the Sabuwar Ungwa area of Katsina city.

Eyewitnesses said the street urchins invaded the area near the popular Gadar Nayelli, allegedly on a retaliatory mission.

It was further gathered that the thugs stabbed and severely injured three other persons who are currently receiving treatment in the hospital.

"The deceased was coming from the Islamiyya School when they and stabbed him severally and he bled profusely before dying at the hospital," one of the witnesses said.

Speaking with LEADERSHIP, a member of the deceased's family, Mall Ibrahim in an emotion laden voice described him as a hardworking, religious and very patient man and urged security agents to apprehend the killers of his brothers

When contacted, the spokesman of the state police command, DSP Aminu Abubakar Sadiq, said the incidence occurred following clash between two rival groups.
