

day

① Accident: Truck Crushes Motorcyclist To Death

BY KOLAEKE-OGIUGO, Asaba

Tears flowed freely at Ubulu-unor Junction in Ugwashi-uku area of Delta State when a truck rammed into a teenager on a motorcycle, identified as Chuks Igbokwe and crushed him to death.

The driver of the truck with Anambra State registration number AWK 140 XC according to a witness was heading towards Ogwashi-uku when it veered off the road and rammed into the motorcyclist, crushing him in the process.

The victim said to be teenager was reportedly taken to the hospital by sympathisers where he was confirmed dead.

Sources close to the family of the deceased said the boy was on an errand to buy premium motor spirit popularly called petrol from the NNPC mega station in the area when the unexpected happened.

LEADERSHIP gathered that the boy who is in a boarding school had just returned home and his mother was preparing a meal for him while he was out on the errand, where he met his demise.

Confirming the incident, police public relations officer in the state, DSP Celestina Kalu said the driver of the truck had made a report at the police station where he was being detained while investigation was on-going.