

ROBBERY: Police Kill 2 Robbery Suspects In Delta

BY KOLAEKE-OGIUGO, Asaba

The police detectives attached to the Og-washi-uku police division, Delta State yesterday in a gun battle with six man robbery gang, killed two out of the six while four others escaped with serious bullet wounds.

Reports said that the armed robbers were operating in the community after they had robbed several unsuspecting traders and businessmen in the area at gun point before the detectives moved into the scene where they were engaged in gun battle in close to two hours.

DSP Celestina Kalu, Police Public Relations officer in the state, who confirmed the incident, disclosed that the robbery suspects were among those that have been terrorising the community and its environs in the last few weeks, adding that the gang robbed several persons including some car owners before nemesis caught up with two of them.

It was gathered that Ogwahi-uku community and its environs had been under siege in the last few weeks of continued robbery attacks especially at night fall where the robbers shoot sporadically in the air to scare residents who were said to be sleeping with one eye open but with the killing of the two robbery suspects, DSP Kalu further disclosed that more police detectives had been deployed in the area to keep watch and bring to book unscrupulous elements.
