Two persons lost their lives yesterday following a deadly cult war which occurred at Idua road by RCC junction in Eket South West, Akwa Ibom.

The body of one of the victims was found in a gutter early along the road with several machete cuts while the other was found beside an adjoining street.

Eyewitness report says the incident happened in wee hours of the night as members of opposing cult groups exchanged gun fire and singing war songs.

A resident of the area who did not want his name in print told our correspondent that the entire street could not even sleep a wink as the cult war intensified till early hours of the morning.

"We were all outside our compound when suddenly we heard an unusual noise and movement of some youths who were members of the cult group, not quite long another batch of young men in black beret with awesome look ran after them.

Suddenly we heard gunshot and there was pandemonium in the area as war broke out among the opposing cult groups while the entire street was deserted.
