

was caught in the act.

Expectedly, the former councillor is currently helping the police at the state CID.

MURDER: Businessman Goes Berserk, Kills In-Laws With Matchet

BY KOLA EKE-OGIUGO, Asaba

A 51-year-old business man identified as Felix Ibuah has allegedly matcheted to death his in-laws in Ukwu-Obah community, Aniocha South Local Government Area of Delta State.

Reports said that although the circumstances that led to the killing of the said in-laws from Idumu-Ogude quarters, Ogwashi-Uku by the suspects is yet to be properly ascertained.

But the Police Public Relations Officer in the state, Celestina Kalu, confirmed that the suspect is currently helping the police at the state CID for further investigation, adding that the incident was a resultant of a fight between the in-laws who were later killed and the suspect.

According the DSP Kalu, the incident took place few days after the victims had returned from a burial ceremony of one of their in-laws in Ukwu-Obah, saying that whatever must have led to the fight that allegedly resulted in the youths of the community attacking the suspect, still remains unknown.

Leadership reliably gathered that while he was being attacked by the irate youths, who were said to be yet unidentified, raised into his room and came out with a cutlass to chase them away, but in the process allegedly cut off his in-laws.

FRAUD: Man Jailed Over Sale Of Landed Property