

DEATH: 2 Scavengers Found Dead At Refuse Dump

BY KOLA EKE-OGIUGO, Asaba

Motorists and pedestrians along Benin Asaba expressway were dumb founded when two unidentified scavengers were found dead at an illegal refuse dump near the International Airport, yesterday.

Reports said that the cause of the death of the two scavengers, who were between the ages of 20 and 21 years respectively, have not been ascertained.

Unconfirmed sources said that the deceased persons may have been choked by the offensive odour emitting from the refuse dump as no signs of injuries were found on their bodies.

Farmers who farm within the area have expressed concern over the mysterious death of the boys. They called on the police to investigate the cause of their death which they described as very strange.

In her reaction, the police public relations officer in the state, DSP Celestina Kalu, said that the police were already investigating the mystery of the unidentified boys, adding that their corpses have been deposited at the FMC mortuary for an autopsy.

BRAWL: Unemployed Graduate Beats Father To Coma