— June 24, 2014

Two teenagers have been feared dead while 16 sustained various degree of injuries in a flood that ravaged Casloba and Eugene Street in Asaba, Oshimili South local government area in Delta State.

A victim, Mrs Isioma Ijiofah, who spoke on behalf of other residents, lamented the unbearable, deplorable, and impassable condition of the roads around the area, calling on the government to quickly come to the aid of the community.

Counting her losses, she narrated that the flood swept into her compound and destroyed a major part of her property.

LEADERSHIP spotted car owners stuck at different areas of the community, with motorists waiting for the flood level to go down as the road channels were completely flooded.

LEADERSHIP gathered that the teenagers who were swept off by the flood were sent on an errand by their parents but did not return after the flood.
